

Make-shift Whiteboard

To help facilitate independent learning as much as possible make your own make-shift whiteboard.

Simply get a firm plastic sleeve. Students can swap out the sheet they need and use the sleeve as a whiteboard. They can snap a photo of their work, then wipe the sleeve clean with a cloth.

(Some examples when this might be handy: hundred chart work, maths problems, handwriting practice)

